THE BASICS AND MORE

The University Health Center and University Counseling and Testing Center are housed in a comprehensive venue to serve student health needs, and the staff in these departments offer incredible care. They encourage students to utilize the healthcare services available and make personal well-being a priority so students can stay healthy and in school, no matter what issues they face while on campus.

- 80,485 student visits to the Health Center
- 159 Health Center and Counseling and Testing Center employees
- 25,807 prescriptions filled at the campus pharmacy
- 6,923 visits to the nurse specialty clinic

THE CHANGING NEEDS OF OUR STUDENTS

Life as a student can be overwhelming at times. Each year, we see a greater number of students facing stress and anxiety issues, fighting cold and flu symptoms, and struggling with depression. These concerns, among others, are associated with lower GPAs and a higher probability of dropping out of college.

At the UO, we strive to provide exceptional health and counseling services to help students manage stress and take care of their personal health. As the healthcare needs of our students change, our Health Center and Counseling and Testing Center are continuously adapting to try and keep up. By modifying our healthcare business model, we will better meet the needs of our students and ensure our Ducks are healthy and successful.

UO STUDENT SURVEY: 2014 COMPARED TO 2012
The American College Health Association (ACHA) conducted a survey of UO students to determine which factors cause negative impacts on an individual’s academic performance. The factors listed contribute to lower grades, poor test results, or the inability to complete a course.

NATIONAL COLLEGE HEALTH ASSOCIATION SURVEY HIGHLIGHTS:
Spring 2014

90.1% of students described their health as good, very good, or excellent.

52.8% of students reported getting enough sleep in the past 3–5 days to feel rested.

85.6% of students reported feeling overwhelmed by all they had to do at least one time within the last school year.

57.1% of students meet the recommendation of moderate to vigorous exercise in the past 7 days.

67.9% of students were a healthy weight based on the body mass index (BMI).

35.4% of students reported eating 3–4 servings of fruits and vegetables per day.
The Affordable Care Act is driving change throughout the national healthcare market. Mandatory health coverage for all creates ripples throughout every community, and the UO is no different. We must take a thoughtful and proactive approach to ensure our students are appropriately served and covered so they aren’t left struggling to find affordable insurance or facing government fines. The mandatory requirement has increased the demand for high-deductible plans to keep acquisition costs low. But, high-deductible plans and their cost structure create additional expenses to access services. These costs can be burdensome for our students. As a university, it is critical that we provide exceptional health and counseling services to ensure our students stay healthy and enrolled at the UO. Without the ability to bill insurance, costs for providing services on campus will not keep pace with revenues. We know we can do better for our students.
OUR CURRENT BUSINESS MODEL

The UO is committed to providing better healthcare services for our students, but our current business model poses challenges. By changing our business model and adapting to the changing needs of our students, we will have more resources available to improve healthcare services on campus.

HOW CAN WE IMPROVE?

We are proactively seeking ways to achieve the following improvements:

- Adapt services to keep pace with changes in national healthcare policies.
- Provide students the option to bill standard health insurance for on-campus services.
- Examine possible changes in health fee structure to balance increasing service costs and prevent budget deficits.
- Expand spaces and facilities to meet the growing service demand.
- Improve the current “one-size-fits-all” business model to provide a more personalized healthcare experience.
WHAT’S NEXT? BE T TER CARE FOR OUR DUCKS

At the University of Oregon, we know that our students need to be healthy to be successful. As the healthcare needs of our students change, we realize they need more than what is currently provided, and we are committed to offering them a more personalized healthcare experience. The UO is proactively exploring steps we can take to better care for our students and ensure they are successful at the UO and beyond.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Division of Student Life
Agenda Item #3

Review of proposed changes to the Student Conduct Code and review of previously-adopted changes to the Code
Introduction
Last fall, the Board of Trustees considered and adopted some permanent and temporary changes to the Student Conduct Code. Since that time, the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, through outreach with students, faculty and staff, has completed a review of these and other suggested changes. Recommendations and comments are set forth below.

The purpose of the discussion at the May 8 meeting is to provide an update on proposed changes; there is no proposed action before trustees at this time. The Division of Student Life will bring recommended changes to the Board, via the Academic and Student Affairs Committee, at the June meeting. Between now and then, the Division of Student Life will finalize its recommendations and provide updated material for the June meeting.

Proposed Changes

I. Policy Changes
The following policy changes were enacted as temporary changes to the Student Conduct Code by the Board of Trustees on September 11, 2014. They will be proposed as permanent changes.

1. Change in adjudication model (all Administrative Conferences)
The most significant of the temporary changes enacted in September was the move to have all cases resolved by “Administrative Conferences”. In the past, the accused student was able to choose between either an Administrative Conference, or a Hearing Panel, heard by the University Hearings Board. (In most cases.)

This change was made largely to provide equity to both complainants and respondents when choosing a method of resolution. This change also assured that students would never be a part of an adjudication process for sexual misconduct allegations.

As a result of this change, the University Hearings board was eliminated, and all references to it have been removed from the code. (See Comments: SW6, SW14, SW17, SW18, SW80, SW82, SW87, SW89, and SW91 for more details)

2. Change in deadlines for student response to allegations
Another temporary change approved in September changed the number of days students have to respond to allegations in all cases. Prior to the change, students had 14 days to respond (with an exemption for all school calendar breaks). As a result, the University was unable to move forward in some serious cases (Title IX, etc.) for several months due to the summer break.

The change required students to respond, by contacting the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, within seven days of receiving a Notice of Allegation in all cases. (See Comment SW77 for more details)
3. Change in appeals process for sexual misconduct cases
   A third temporary change enacted in September changed the method of appeal for cases involving Sexual Misconduct from the University Appeals Board to having appeals heard exclusively by the Vice President for Student Life.

   This change assured that students (who are members of the University Appeals Board) are never involved in deciding sexual misconduct cases. (See Comment SW91 for more details)

II. Motions passed by the University Senate (Fall 2014)
During the fall 2014 term, the University Senate passed nine motions (proposed by Law Professors John Bonine and Caroline Forell) to amend sections of the Student Conduct Code, all focused on sexual misconduct. Those proposed changes are reflected in the draft code, and with two exceptions, are recommended by the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards.

1. Additions of the word “explicit” ahead of the word consent on three occasions within the definition of “Sexual Misconduct”. This makes it consistent with other references in the code. (See Comment SW50 for more details)

2. A clarification that a “single episode of behavior” that meets certain standards within the definition of sexual misconduct can be sufficient for a finding of sexual misconduct. (See Comment SW11 for more details)

3. A change in the “Jurisdiction” section of the code that allows for a transcript hold in the case where a student has been accused of sexual misconduct to prevent the student from transferring to another institution prior to the case being decided. The Senate also proposed adding reference to “sexual misconduct” for emphasis in two other places in the Jurisdiction section. (See Comments SW33, SW34, SW35 and SW36 for more details; Further review is needed to determine whether FERPA would limit the ability of the University to make this change.)

4. A change in the definition of sexual misconduct in the section that defines violations of the student conduct code. The goal of this change is to take away barriers to bringing forward allegations of sexual misconduct. (See Comments SW48 and SW49 for more details)

5. A clarifications of guidelines for sanctions in sexual misconduct cases. It clarifies that an “educational activity will not normally be used alone” in sexual assault cases. (See Comment SW57 for more details)

6. Significant changes in the “Student Rights” section of the code that ensure that complainant (in all cases) receives the same procedural rights as the accused. This change promotes equity in the process in sexual misconduct cases. (See Comment SW62 for more details)

7. Two changes in the “conduct procedures” section of the code. The first sets faster timelines for the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards to send a formal notice of allegation in all cases (From 6 months to 60 days, with an extension procedure built in.) (See Comment SW74 for more details)
This section also clarifies that a complaint can be filed against a “non-enrolled” student as defined in the student conduct code.  (See Comment SW72 for more details)

8. A change in the “Alternative Dispute Resolution” section of the code that clarifies that mediation will never be used as a part of a sexual misconduct resolution process.  (See Comment SW106 for more details)

9. (A) This change clarifies that the complainant is entitled to an equal right as the accused to have an advisor in sexual misconduct cases.  (See Comment SW75 for more details)

9. (B) The Senate passed a change that “entitles” a complainant to be represented by a legal advisor at the University’s expense, if the accused retains a legal advisor.  (See Comment SW79 for more details - Further review is needed as there is no dedicated funding for this change.)

III. Further Recommended changes by the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards

1. The Code currently authorizes the Community Standards Committee to seek written reports of the disposition of all student conduct cases. This language could be interpreted to authorize the release of details of such conduct cases, which would not be allowed under FERPA. It will be recommended that the Board acts to remove this section.  (See comments SW64 and SW67 for more details)

IV. Recommended Non-Substantive Changes

1. New numbering system
   With the governance changes at the UO, and the movement away from Oregon Administrative Rules dictating the Student Conduct Code, the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards advises that the old numbering system is retired, in favor of a simpler, and more student friendly system.  (See Comments SW1, SW12 et al. for examples.)

2. Removal of Gendered language
   In compliance with best practice, any reference to gendered pronouns in the Student Conduct Code has been removed.  (See Comments SW3, SW4, and SW9 for examples)

3. Modernization of Terms/Correct titles
   Some terminology in the code has not been reviewed since the last major overhaul in 2006. The staff of the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards reviewed the language both for relevance and to ensure that University entities and titles that have changed since 2006 have been updated (e.g. updating “Student Affairs” to “Student Life”).  (See Comments SW5, SW10, SW13 et al for examples)

4. Movements of sections
   The staff of the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards reviewed the code and recommends moving certain sections to make it more user and student friendly.  (See Comment SW97 for an example)

5. Removal of “judicial” and adversarial language
To better align with SCCS philosophy and practice, staff has worked to remove traditionally adversarial language throughout the code. (See Comment SW7 for an example)

V. Reminder of Permanent Changes
This section seeks simply to remind readers of permanent changes enacted by the Board of Trustees in September.

1. Off Campus Jurisdiction
The Student Conduct Code now has jurisdiction over significantly more student behavior that occurs off campus. This change mainly affected the University’s opportunity to respond to quality of life issues that have caused consistent concerns to our University’s neighbors. (See Comments SW30 and SW32 for more details)

2. Change in standard of evidence for the sanction of expulsion
Making all decisions in the student conduct code (both responsibility and sanctions) based on a preponderance (more likely than not) standard. In the past, expulsion was decided by a higher, clear and convincing, standard. (See Section 2, 5(h) of the code for more details)

3. Change in definition of “Sexual Misconduct”
Clarification that consent must be explicit. (See section 2, paragraph 29)

4. Change in authority over changes to the Student Conduct Code
Aligned the Conduct Code with state law and university policy, clarifying that the Board of Trustees has exclusive authority over changes to the Student Conduct Code. Previously, changes to the code were approved by both the Student Conduct Committee and the UO Senate, and then authorized by the President. (See Comment SW21 for more details)
STUDENT CONDUCT CODE (Draft 4/20/2015)

571-021-0100  Section 1: Student Conduct Policies

I. Mission

1. The primary mission of the Student Conduct Code is to set forth the community standards and procedures necessary to maintain and protect an environment conducive to learning and in keeping with the educational objectives of the University of Oregon. Founded upon the principle of freedom of thought and expression, an environment conducive to learning is one that preserves the freedom to learn -- where academic standards are strictly upheld and where the rights, safety, dignity and worth of every individual are respected.

2. Learning is a process defined by the exchange of ideas and the advancement of knowledge. As such, learning entails a community of scholars united by their participation in, and commitment to, intellectual exchange. The University is, first and foremost such a community. Learning also involves reflecting on decisions and improving decision-making in the future. By establishing the standards of this community, the Student Conduct Code serves not just as a disciplinary system, but also as a part of the educational system. Hence, a corollary mission of the Student Conduct Code is to teach students to live and act responsibly in a community setting, with respect for the rights of other students and members of that community, and for the property, common resources, code of conduct, and laws associated with that community, and to encourage the development of good decision-making and personal integrity.

3. Students are simultaneously members of the University community and the broader community (e.g. city, state, nation, and world). The Student Conduct Code, and the processes of its administration and enforcement, is directed specifically toward maintaining the standards of the University community. Within its jurisdiction the University may impose disciplinary sanctions against students or student organizations when their conduct materially interferes with the educational objectives of the University or university community member.

III. Delegations and Authority

Pursuant to ORS 352.010, the faculty is responsible for student discipline. The faculty of the University delegates authority for administering this Code and the Student Conduct Program as provided below:

The Board of Trustees of the University of Oregon delegates authority for administering this Code and the Student Conduct program as provided below:

(d) The authority granted to minor tribunals alternative processes and their respective governing bodies is conditional and may be withdrawn at any time by the Community Standards Committee when a minor tribunal is either unable or unwilling to assume its responsibilities as part of the University’s Student Conduct Program.

IV. Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction describes where and when the Student Conduct Code applies.

(1) Jurisdiction over types of actions and events. The Student Conduct Code applies to actions by Students that materially interfere with:
   (a) An educational opportunity of a University community member;
   (b) The health and safety of any person;
   (c) The maintenance or protection of University property or personal property located on campus;
   (d) University record keeping;
   (e) University living accommodations and other services; or
   (f) University sponsorship or supervision of non-classroom activities such as lectures, concerts, athletic events and social functions.

(2) Jurisdictional boundaries.
   (a) On-Campus. The Student Conduct Code routinely applies to actions which occur on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity.
   (b) Off-Campus. The University extends jurisdiction without exception to off-campus sexual misconduct that consists of unwanted penetration or non-consensual personal contact as defined in 571-021-0105(3). Section 1, II (29) of this code. The University shall have discretion to extend jurisdiction over conduct that occurs other than on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity. In determining whether or not to extend jurisdiction, the University will consider its ability to gather information, including testimony of witnesses. The University may extend jurisdiction if the alleged conduct would have violated the Student Code of Conduct if the conduct had occurred on campus; and:
      (A) Adversely and significantly affects the learning or living environment; or
      (B) Involved violence or produced a reasonable fear of physical harm; or
      (C) Involved academic work or any records, documents, or identifications of the University.

(3) Student Status. An individual’s status as a “student” is established by:
   (a) An application for admission, housing, financial aid, or any other service provided by the University which requires student status;
   (b) Registration for one or more credit hours; or
   (c) Enrollment in a special non-credit program approved by the University.

(4) Jurisdiction over non-enrolled students. Jurisdiction is maintained between periods of enrollment unless the accused individual’s official record in the Office of the Registrar shows a complete withdrawal prior to the expiration of the published deadline for registration for the succeeding period of enrollment. For students enrolled in the spring term, jurisdiction is maintained until the expiration on the published deadline for registration for the succeeding fall term. If a student withdraws after a complaint has been made but before a decision is rendered, the transcript will be withheld until the disciplinary process is concluded. Complaints of sexual misconduct, academic dishonesty or fraudulently obtaining a degree may be filed at any time, whether or not the student is currently enrolled or registered.

(5) In all cases except sexual misconduct, academic dishonesty or fraudulently obtaining a degree, the University must file disciplinary complaints under the Student Conduct Code within six months of:
(a) The University’s discovery of the student’s or student organization’s involvement in the alleged violation; and no later than
(b) The student’s last date of enrollment or registration, or an organization’s recognition.

(6) Allegations of sexual misconduct, academic dishonesty or fraudulently obtaining a degree may be considered at any time regardless when the alleged misconduct occurred.

(7) Students may be accountable both to civil and criminal authorities and to the University for behavior that constitute violations of the law and the Student Conduct Code. Since the action of civil and criminal authorities is independent from University action, the University may decide whether to initiate or consider an alleged violation of the Student Conduct Code while criminal charges are pending or before they are filed or after they are resolved.

571-021-0120
V. Violations of Community Standards by Individual Students

The following conduct violates the community standards that are essential to the core educational mission of the University of Oregon and subjects a Student or Student Organization to sanctions under the Student Conduct Code: (see Section 1, I for definitions)

(1) Standards Relative to Academic and Personal Integrity. Integrity is a bedrock value of the University community and includes respect for open and honest intellectual exchange as well as respect for University records and for the Student Conduct Code itself. The following conduct violates standards of academic integrity:
(a) Cheating as defined in 571-021-0105(3);
(b) Fabrication as defined in 571-021-0105(14);
(c) Plagiarism as defined in 571-021-0105(26);
(d) Academic misconduct as defined in 571-021-0105(1);
(e) Intentionally furnishing false information to a University Official;
(f) Forging, alteration or unauthorized use of University documents, records, keys student identification, keycards or services;
(g) Creation or distribution of false identification;
(h) Failure to comply with the terms of any sanction imposed in accordance with the Student Conduct Code; or

(i) Contempt of adjudicative proceedings including impairing or interrupting the due course of proceedings in the presence of any tribunal; process created under this Code. Adjudication of contempt and imposition of sanctions may be imposed summarily consistent with procedures outlined in this code.

(2) Standards Relative to Respect for Property and for Shared University Resources. The following conduct violates standards of respect for property and shared University resources:

(a) Engaging in behavior that could reasonably be foreseen to cause disruption of, obstruction of, or interference with the process of instruction, research, administration, student discipline, or any other service or activity provided or sponsored by the University;
(b) Damage, destruction, theft, or unauthorized use of property located on the University campus or property owned or controlled by the University;
(c) Unauthorized entry into or use of University property or University-recognized living units, facilities, residence halls, equipment, or resources;
(d) Disorderly conduct (including that resulting from the use of alcohol), unreasonable noise, or conduct that results in unreasonable annoyance;
(e) Failure to comply with the reasonable directions of public officials acting in performance of their duties on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity when such conduct poses a danger to personal safety or property or obstructs or impairs educational or other Institutional activities;
(f) Violation of University Policy on the acceptable use of computing and network resources. Unacceptable uses of computing resources include, but are not limited to:
   (A) Use of electronic forums to violate other sections of the Student Conduct Code;
   (B) Sharing of accounts or computer lab passes;
   (C) Violation of electronic privacy;
   (D) Interference with computer use or operations;
   (E) Commercial or illegal use of electronic or computer resources;
   (F) Violation of copyright law; or
   (G) Threats, abuse or Harassment, as defined in 571-021-0105(), in this code made or transmitted via electronic forums, social media platforms or electronic mail.

(3) Standards Relative to the Rights of Individuals and to the Welfare of the University Community. An environment conducive to learning is one where the rights, safety, dignity and worth of every individual are respected. The following conduct endangers such an environment, and threatens the welfare of the University community as a whole:

(a) Physical contact that endangers, threatens, or harms the health or safety of any person or behavior that causes a reasonable person to fear such contact;
(b) Hazing, as defined in OAR 571-021-0105(18);
(c) Possession, use, or threatened use of a weapon, ammunition, or any object or substance used as a weapon on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity unless expressly authorized by law or University Policy. A concealed weapons permit does not constitute authorization;
(d) Unauthorized possession, use, or threatened use of dangerous chemical or biological substances or explosives;
(e) Tampering with fire-fighting equipment, turning in a false alarm, or engaging in conduct that constitutes a significant fire hazard;
(f) Harassment, as defined in 571-021-0105(17), because of another person's race, ethnicity, color, gender, gender identification, national origin, age, religion, marital status, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, or for other reasons, including but not limited to harassment prohibited by University Policy.
(g) Unwanted Contact, as defined in 571-021-0105(38);
(h) Sexual Misconduct. A mission of the Student Conduct Code is to encourage good decision-making, personal integrity, and interpersonal behavior that is cooperative rather than coercive and that respects the rights of others. Sexual misconduct violates these values, and is committed when a student engages in sexual behavior described in 571-021-0105(30). As defined in this code
(A) A complaint alleging Sexual Misconduct may be filed whenever Sexual Misconduct:
   (i) Materially interferes with another person’s academic performance or participation in a University Sponsored Activity, or performance of University employment;
   (ii) Is committed on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity, or
   (iii) Demonstrates reasonable threat to the health or safety of a Member of the University Community or the alleged student survivor.
(B) (A) Sexual gratification or pleasure of any party involved is not relevant to a determination of whether Sexual Misconduct occurred.
(C) (B) A violation of provisions of the alcohol or drug policy in the Student Conduct Code does not affect a person’s ability to file a complaint regarding another person’s Sexual Misconduct on the same occasion.
(D) (C) Consent to one form of sexual activity does not automatically operate as explicit consent to any other form sexual activity. A “no” always means that explicit consent is not present, whereas a “yes” to one act at one time does not mean “yes” to other acts or to the same act at other times. Voluntarily making oneself incapacitated does not mean one is giving explicit consent to any form of sexual activity.
(j) Prohibited alcohol use, which includes:
   (A) Possession or consumption of alcohol by those under 21 years of age on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity;
   (B) Furnishing of alcohol to a person under 21 years of age;
   (C) Consumption of an alcoholic beverage by a person at least 21 years of age or furnishing of an alcoholic beverage by or to a person at least 21 years of age, except in such areas and at such times as the University authorizes.
(k) Prohibited drug use, which includes:
   (A) Manufacture, processing, distribution, or cultivation of a Drug, including but not limited to marijuana or narcotics, on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity, except as expressly permitted by both State and Federal law;

(B) Sale of a Drug, including but not limited to marijuana or narcotics, on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity; or

(C) Possession of a Drug, including but not limited to marijuana or narcotics, on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity except as expressly permitted by law.

(l) Lewd or indecent conduct on University Premises or at a University Sponsored Activity. Lewd or indecent conduct includes, but is not limited to, any unauthorized use of electronic or other devices to make an audio or video record that would be an invasion of privacy pursuant to ORS 163.700. This includes, but is not limited to, surreptitiously taking pictures of another person in a gym, locker room, or restroom.

(m) Gambling, as defined and prohibited in ORS 167.108 to 167.164 except as authorized by ORS 464.270 to 464.530.

VI. Sanctions

The University utilizes an educational sanctioning model; hearing officers administrators will make every attempt to provide an educational sanction that will help a student to make better choices in the future. The educational sanction applied will become progressively more demanding if the student repeats violations, demonstrating that learning has not taken place. An accumulation of a variety of violations including sexual assault may result in severe sanctions such as suspension, expulsion or negative notation on a transcript. Academic dishonesty and violations affecting the health, safety and well being of the community are deemed the most severe and may result, upon the first violation, in a negative notation being placed on a transcript, suspension, or expulsion.

1. Forms of Sanctions

   (a) Expulsion. Student status is severed permanently. A Student who has been expelled from the University shall not be permitted to participate in any University Sponsored Activity or allowed to reside on University Premises.

   (b) Suspension.

      (A) Individual Suspension. Student status is severed for a specified period. A student who has been suspended from the University shall not be permitted to participate in any University Sponsored Activity or allowed to reside on University Premises during the period the student is suspended.

      (B) Group Suspension. A Student Organization loses University recognition and all privileges associated with such recognition for a specified period. Imposition of this sanction against the ASUO or a recognized Student Organization requires approval by the Vice President for Student Life.

   (c) Negative Notation on Transcript. Entry of the fact of violation on the Student’s permanent academic record as the sole or an additional sanction may be imposed at the discretion of the hearing officer administrator. After the expiration of the period of time, if any, set by the hearing officer, the notation shall be removed upon the request of the Student or former Student.

   (d) Revocation of Degree. An academic degree previously awarded by the University may be Commented [SW51]: Added to acknowledge the differences between State and Federal law regarding Marijuana.

Commented [SW52]: Changing to be consistent with new code numbering system

Commented [SW53]: Changed to reflect the titles SCCS uses in practice

Commented [SW54]: Change Passed by UO Senate

Commented [SW55]: Change Passed by the UO Senate

Commented [SW56]: Changed to reflect the titles SCCS uses in practice revoked if it was obtained by fraud or a significant part of the work submitted in fulfillment of, and indispensable to, the requirements for such degree constitutes Plagiarism. The Academic Requirements Committee may, upon appeal of a University graduate subjected to degree revocation, stipulate the requirements for obtaining a degree.

(e) Grade Penalty. A Student admitting Academic Misconduct or found responsible for Academic Misconduct is subject to a grade penalty as determined by the instructor in the course in which the violation occurred.

(f) Disciplinary Probation. In lieu of another sanction, a period of probation may be imposed during which any violations of the Student Conduct Code will result in more serious sanctions than might be otherwise imposed. A Student or Student Organization on probation may or may not lose designated privileges during the period of probation. During the time on probation, a Student or Student Organization may, by demonstrating good conduct, avoid additional sanctions. Imposition of this sanction against the ASUO or an ASUO-recognized group requires approval by the Vice President for Student Life.

(g) Restitution. The Student or Student Organization is required to replace or restore damaged, stolen, or misappropriated property.

(h) Educational Activity. The Student or Student Organization is required to complete a project or activity designed to help the Student or Student Organization understand why the behavior was inappropriate and encourage future compliance with the Student Conduct Code. The educational activity is designed to correspond to the severity and nature of the violation and to clarify the impact of that behavior on Members of the University Community. Educational activities may include, but are not limited to, assessments of substance abuse and other behaviors, community service, workshops, papers and similar assignments. An educational activity will not normally be used alone for cases of unwanted penetration or nonconsensual physical contact; it should only be used in conjunction with more serious sanctions, including reprimands, notations on transcripts, and expulsions.

(i) Loss of Privileges. The Student or Student Organization is denied specified privileges normally associated with Student Status or recognized Student Organization status, such as participation in or sponsorship of University activities, use of University facilities or services, or living in University-owned or supervised housing. Imposition of this sanction against the ASUO or an ASUO-recognized group requires approval by the Vice President of Student Life.

(j) Conduct Reprimand. The Student or Student Organization is given written notice that the conduct engaged in is inconsistent with University standards and expectations and informed that future violations of the Student Conduct Code may result in the imposition of more serious sanctions.

(k) Suspended Sanction. The execution of any sanction authorized under the Student Conduct Code may be suspended. When suspending a sanction, a time limit for the suspension period shall be designated, and subsequent violations of the Student Conduct Code that will terminate the suspension and result in the imposition of the original sanction shall be specified. In the absence of any such violation, the original sanction shall be deemed completed at the end of the suspension period.

(2) Medical Leave. Actions taken pursuant to University policies on medical leave shall not be deemed disciplinary sanctions within the meaning of the Student Conduct Code.
(3) Failure to complete a sanction will be handled pursuant to 521-021-0240(3). Processes found in this code.

571-021-0140

Section 2: Student Rights

Procedural fairness is basic to the proper enforcement of all University regulations. Accordingly, no disciplinary action shall be initiated or sanction imposed against a Student or Student Organization until they have been notified in writing of the complaints against them and their rights under this Code, and given the opportunity to be heard.
Complainants shall also be accorded certain accommodations, as provided below.

(1) Regulations and disciplinary sanctions affecting the conduct of all Students shall be based on general principles of equal treatment.
(2) The Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards shall insure that the best interests of Students and Student Organizations are served, regardless of whether disciplinary action is taken, by making full use of appropriate medical, counseling and other professional services at the University, or if necessary by making referrals to community resources. For purposes of this Division, the Director may authorize another staff member to carry out any of the Director’s responsibilities unless expressly prohibited from doing so.
(3) Students shall have an opportunity to participate in the formulation of all regulations and policies pertaining to the Student Conduct Code at the University of Oregon.
(4) All University regulations and policies pertaining to student discipline shall be published, distributed, or posted in such a manner as to furnish adequate notice of their contents to Students or Student Organizations.

   (g) To request that any person conducting a disciplinary conference be disqualified on the ground of personal bias.
   (h) To be considered not responsible for the alleged conduct until proven responsible by a preponderance of the information.
   (i) To have an adviser of their choice present at the conference provided that the advisor’s schedule does not unreasonably delay the conference. The director shall determine what constitutes an "unreasonable" delay.

(6) A student accusing another student of a violation of the Student Conduct Code can expect the following procedural accommodations:
   (a) To be allowed reasonable time to prepare for any participation in the conference;
   (b) To be accorded the opportunity to offer a relevant response to any assertions made;
   (c) To propose relevant witnesses and submit suggested questions to the Director;
   (d) To be assured of confidentiality, in accordance with the terms of the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and Oregon law;
   (e) To request that any person conducting a disciplinary conference be disqualified on the ground of personal bias;
   (f) To be protected against retaliation for filing a complaint;
   (g) To have an advisor of their choice present at the conference provided that the advisor's schedule does not unreasonably delay the proceeding. The Director shall determine what constitutes an "unreasonable" delay;
   (h) Upon request in the case of sexual misconduct, to be present in a separate room instead of the same room as the accused student.

571-021-0150 Section 3: Administration of the Student Conduct Process

I. Administrative Policies Administration of the Conduct System

[This section of the code designates who is in control of the Conduct System Process, and how the code and cases are administered.]

(1) Disciplinary Records and Files. Case referrals will result in the development of a disciplinary file in the name of the accused student. If the Student is found not responsible for the complaints, the disciplinary file will become void.
   (a) Voided files will be so marked and shall not result in a disciplinary record. Voided files will normally be destroyed after one year. Where a Student files a conduct complaint against another Student, a file shall be created for both Students.
   (b) Disciplinary records may be voided by the Director of Conduct and Community Standards for good cause, upon written petition from the student. Factors to be considered in review of such petitions shall include:
      (A) The conduct of the Student subsequent to the violation; and
      (B) The nature of the violation and the severity of any damage, injury, or harm resulting from it.
(2) Student Conduct Reports.
   (a) The Community Standards Committee shall require from University officials, hearings boards, referees, committees and tribunals periodic written reports of the disposition of all student conduct cases dealt with under their jurisdiction. The Committee shall examine such reports for consistency with existing policies and, when necessary, review the reports with the appropriate officials or tribunals.
   (b) At the end of each academic year, the Committee shall submit to the Board of Trustees
       President, University Senate, Deans, Department Heads, the ASUO President, and the Office of Student Advocacy, a written report covering the entire Student Conduct Program, including an evaluation of the existing rules, policies, and enforcement procedures. This report shall also detail all Code revisions approved during the previous year and shall be available to any person upon request.
(3) Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards.
   (a) The President of the University shall designate a Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards who shall have primary responsibility for administering the Student Conduct Program and coordinating the activities of all University officials, hearing officers, referees, committees, or tribunals that are concerned with the Community Standards Program.
   (b) The Director shall be responsible to the Community Standards Student Conduct
       Committee for maintaining complete records pertaining to the activities of the Community
       Standards Program. Those records shall include a summary of the business of the Community Standards Committee and a report of the disposition of each disciplinary case handled by any person or group authorized to impose disciplinary sanctions in the name of the University. For record keeping purposes, the Director may prescribe reporting procedures to be followed, in addition to those in paragraph (2) above by those authorized to impose disciplinary sanctions.
   (c) The Director shall serve as non-voting Secretary of the Community Standards Committee and as advisor to all individuals and groups authorized to impose disciplinary sanctions. The Director shall serve as a non-voting, ex-officio member of the Residence Hall Governance Committee and of the residence hall Peer Judicial Board.
   (d) The Director shall be responsible for gathering and presenting to the Community Standards
       Student Conduct Committee the reports required by this code.
(4) Student Conduct Code Adoption, Amendment and Revision.
   (a) Code establishment. Upon approval by the Board of Trustees of the University of Oregon, this Student Conduct Code becomes effective and supersedes all previous regulations and policies pertaining to student discipline at the University of Oregon.
   (b) Code Amendment. This Code may be amended by the Board of Trustees of the University of Oregon, consistent with the Policy on Retention and Delegation of Authority upon consultation with the president, faculty, and students.
   (c) Code Revision. This Code shall be continuously reviewed in its entirety to make sure it is consistent with best practices.
II. Student Conduct Procedures

This section of the code describes the process that the Student Conduct office adheres to following an alleged breach violation of the code.

(1) Complaint. Any Member of the University Community or the public may file a complaint against a Student (or non-enrolled student as defined in this code) for a violation of the Student Conduct Code. A complaint shall be prepared in writing and directed to the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards. Any complaint should be submitted as soon as possible after the alleged violation takes place, preferably within one year. Jurisdiction is determined pursuant to 571-021-0115 Section 1 of this code. The longer one waits to file a complaint the less information is likely to be available for the hearing, therefore it is important to file a complaint as soon as possible. Once the Office of Community Standards receives a complaint, the Office has six months 60 days to send written notice to the accused Student of the complaint, unless for good cause an extension of six months is provided in writing by the Vice President for Student Life.

(2) Notice. Upon receiving a complaint or notice that a Student may have violated the Student Conduct Code, the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards shall serve a written notice upon the Student, either by electronic mail or by mailing to the latest address of the Student on file at the Office of the Registrar of the University, or, if necessary, by registered or certified mail or by personal service. A copy of the notice shall be sent to the Member of the University Community who filed the complaint. Such notice shall inform the student of:

(a) The alleged Code violation;
(b) The opportunity for the student to meet with the Director for purposes of discussing the options for disposition of the case;
(c) The Student’s right to assistance. At an administrative conference with the Director (or their designee) or before the Appeals Board, of the Vice President for Student Life, if applicable, a Student may, but need not represent his or her own interests, or be assisted by someone including but not limited to one of the following representatives:
   (A) The Office of Student Advocacy;
   (B) Another Student;
   (C) A member of the faculty or administration;
   (D) A member of the Oregon Bar. An attorney
(d) The requirement to respond within 7 calendar days to arrange a meeting with the hearing officer. The hearing officer will proceed as provided in (3)(b) below if the Student does not arrange to meet or fails to meet with the hearing officer as arranged.

(e) Where sexual misconduct is alleged, the complainant is entitled to the same opportunity as the accused student to have an advisor. If either student retains a legal advisor, the other student is entitled to one funded by the University at no cost to the student, if he or she chooses. The University will provide this assistance through reasonable reimbursement, through a contract with an organization, or through other arrangement.

(3) Response.

(a) After proper service of written notice as provided in (2), the Student may arrange to meet with the Director for the purpose of selecting an option for the disposition of the case, either through conference with the Director or staff or through hearing by a Hearing Panel pursuant to OAR 571-021-0210.

(b) If after receiving notice, pursuant to this rule, the Student does not arrange to meet with the Director within 7 days or if the Student arranges to meet with the Director but does not attend such a meeting, the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards may take any of the actions specified in 571-021-0205 or 571-021-0210 this code for disposition of the case without consultation with or agreement by the Student.

§ 4. With the consent of an Accused Student, the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards may defer proceedings for alleged minor violations of this Code for a period not to exceed ninety days. Pending complaints may be withdrawn thereafter at the discretion of the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards or designee.

§ 71-021-0205 III. Administrative Conferences

This section of the code outlines the rights that an accused student holds during the Conduct procedures, including rights relating to the student's mental capacity and any mental disorder from which the student may suffer.

(1) Complainants, witnesses, and accused students may have an advisor, as defined in §71-021-0200(2)(c) this code, present during any interviews with the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards, or designee, and any other disciplinary proceeding.

(2) Students accused of violations will have an administrative conference with the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards, or designee. The following procedural protections are provided to accused students in disciplinary administrative conferences:

complainants. Access to these materials may be prohibited by law. Otherwise, to the extent allowed by law, copies of the case file will be provided upon request.

(3) In cases where the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards concludes that a Student accused of any offense under the Student Conduct Code lacks the mental capacity to respond to the complaint, the Director shall stay the proceeding until such time that the Director concludes that the Student may adequately respond. A stay granted pursuant to this section shall not in any manner preclude a proceeding for medical leave under OAR Chapter 571, Division 23. If the student has been accused of Academic Misconduct, no academic sanction may be imposed during a stay granted pursuant to this section, but the faculty member for the coursework out of which the complaint of Academic Misconduct arose shall request the Registrar to assign a grade of “I” until the disciplinary proceeding has been completed.

(4) No sanctions shall be imposed against a Student who acknowledges engaging in the specific conduct alleged and who submits a written statement from a Student Health Center psychiatrist or a Counseling Center psychologist stating that, as a result of mental disorder at the time of the offense, the Student did not appreciate the wrongfulness of the conduct or could not conform his or her behavior to the requirements of the Code. The Student may submit any other supplemental information pertinent to his or her mental condition to the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards. If, based upon all information received, the Director decides that the conduct of the Student resulted from mental disorder, the Director shall seek professional assistance and advice, and, if appropriate and legally authorized, consult with the Student’s parent or guardian or take other measures to assure a fair disposition of the case.
