

BYLAWS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

ARTICLE I

Name

The legal name of this independent public body is the University of Oregon ("University").

ARTICLE II

Purposes of Organization

The purposes for which the University is organized are to carry out and exercise the powers, rights, duties and privileges, within and outside this state, that are expressly conferred upon the University, or that are implied by law or are incident to such powers, rights, duties and privileges.

ARTICLE III

Board of Trustees

- 1. Business and Affairs. The University shall be governed and the business and affairs of the University shall be managed by the Board of Trustees of the University of Oregon ("Board"), which may exercise all such powers, rights, duties and privileges as are expressly conferred upon the University, or that are implied by law or are incident to such powers, rights, duties and privileges. The Board may delegate and provide for the further delegation of any and all such powers, rights, duties and privileges subject to limitations expressly set forth in law.
- 2. Membership. The membership of the Board is established by law. With the exception of the President of the University, the Trustees are appointed by the Governor of the State of Oregon and are subject to confirmation by the Oregon Senate in the manner prescribed by law. To assist the Governor in appointing Trustees, the Board may submit recommendations to the Governor for consideration whenever there is a vacancy.
- 3. Vacancies. A vacancy on the Board shall exist upon the death, resignation, removal or expiration of the term of any Trustee. A Trustee may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Governor and at least one of the following: the Chair of the Board of Trustees, the President of the University, or the University Secretary.
- 4. Removal. The Governor may remove a Trustee other than the President as provided by law. The Board may terminate the status of the President as a Trustee by terminating the President's appointment as President of the University, subject to the rights, if any, of the President under a contract of employment.
- 5. Board Officers.

 - a. Every three years, the Board shall select one of its members as Chair and another as Vice Chair, who shall be the Board Officers. The term for a board officer shall be approximately three years, or until death, resignation, removal or expiration of appointment as a Trustee within a term. The Chair and Vice Chair may be elected to consecutive terms. The Chair and Vice Chair may serve a maximum of two full terms in each respective position. The Chair and Vice Chair shall not be employees or students at the University and shall not, as Chair and Vice Chair, be authorized to bind the University. The Board may appoint such other Board Officers with such duties as the Board determines necessary or appropriate.

- b. In the event of a vacancy in the position of Chair, the Vice Chair shall, as soon as practicable, call a meeting of the Board for purposes of filling the vacancy; the Vice Chair shall temporarily assume the responsibilities of the Chair until such a meeting occurs and a new Chair is elected. A vacancy in the position of Vice Chair shall be filled by the Board at its next regular meeting. In the event of a vacancy in both positions simultaneously, the President shall facilitate a meeting of the Board, as soon as practicable, for the purpose of filling both vacancies.
- c. The Chair shall establish the agenda for and preside at all meetings of the Board. The Chair shall perform such other duties as assigned by the Board. In the absence of the Chair or in the event of the Chair's inability to act, the Vice Chair shall perform the duties of the Chair, and when so acting, shall have the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chair. The Vice Chair shall perform such other duties as assigned by the Board. The Chair may designate another trustee, who is not the President, to temporarily preside over a meeting.
- d. Notwithstanding the appointment of a Chair and Vice Chair, authority is vested in the Board collectively and not in any individual Trustee. Individual trustees do not speak on behalf of the Board or the University unless authorized to do so by the Board or Chair. The Chair may speak on behalf of the Board and the University, unless otherwise determined by the Board.
- e. A Board Officer serves at the pleasure of the Board. A Board Officer may be removed from office by a two-thirds majority vote of Trustees eligible to vote. A Board Officer may voluntarily relinquish his or her position as Chair or Vice Chair by submitting a letter of resignation to the Secretary with an effective date.

6. Compensation; Reimbursement of Expenses. A Trustee performing his or her official duties is not acting as an employee of the University and shall not receive a salary for Board service. In accordance with University policy and upon approval by first the Secretary and then the Treasurer of the University, a Trustee may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the performance of official duties.

7. Faculty and Non-faculty Staff Trustees. The Faculty Trustee and Non-faculty Staff Trustee are each hereby granted reasonable leave with pay at their regular compensation as employees of the University to attend meetings of the Board and other official Board functions that occur during their normal work day. Nothing in this section 7 shall be deemed to alter the compensation of the faculty member or staff member for the performance of their duties as a University employee.

ARTICLE IV Meetings of the Board

1. Public Meetings. A "Public Meeting" of the Board is the convening of the Board for a purpose for which a quorum is required in order to make a decision or to deliberate toward a decision on any matter. All Public Meetings of the Board shall be conducted in compliance with Oregon Public Meetings Law. Public Meeting does not include any statutorily exempted meetings, including any on-site inspection of any project or program or the attendance of Trustees at any international, national, regional, state or local association.

2. Quorum of the Board. Except as otherwise specified herein, a quorum of the Board is required to conduct Board business. A quorum of the Board shall be a majority of the Trustees in office at the time of the meeting.

3. Manner of Acting.

- a. Except as otherwise specified herein, action upon a matter for which a quorum is required shall be taken upon the approval of a majority of the Trustees present.
- b. All Trustees present must vote affirmatively or negatively on any matter on which a vote is called by the Chair, except that a Trustee may not vote if the Trustee has refrained from participation on the matter due to an actual conflict of interest as defined in Article VIII section 1 of these bylaws.
- c. The Board may permit any or all Trustees to participate in a meeting by, or conduct the meeting through use of, any means of electronic communication by which all Trustees participating may simultaneously hear each other or otherwise communicate with each other during the meeting. Participation in such a meeting by a Trustee shall constitute such Trustee's presence in person at the meeting.
- d. Any item referred to the Board under unanimous support from a committee may be presented to the Trustees on a Consent Calendar at the recommendation of the committee chair. The Consent Calendar shall be considered at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board and all items on the Consent Calendar shall be considered en bloc. An item shall be removed from the Consent Calendar if two or more trustees so request, in writing to the Chair, not later than two hours prior to convening of the Board meeting at which the Consent Calendar will be considered. An item may be removed from the Consent Calendar at the discretion of the Chair at any time.

4. Quorum not Required. A majority of the voting Trustees present at a meeting that is subject to the quorum requirements of this Article, although less than a quorum, may:

- a. Adjourn the meeting from time to time to a different time or place before the date of the next regular meeting without further notice of any adjournment. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting originally held.
- b. Set a time for adjournment.
- c. Call a recess.
- d. Take any measure necessary or appropriate to assemble a quorum.

5. Waiver of Notice by Trustee. A Trustee's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice of the meeting to the Trustee unless the Trustee at the beginning of the meeting objects to the holding of the meeting or the transaction of business at the meeting and does not subsequently vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting. A Trustee may at any time waive any notice required by law or as described in Article V section 5(b) of these Bylaws, with written notice signed by the Trustee and specifying the meeting for which notice is waived. Any such waiver of notice shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting for which notice is waived.

6. Parliamentary Rules. Procedural disputes shall be resolved by traditional procedural rules, as interpreted by the Chair.

ARTICLE V

Public Meeting Procedures

1. Regular Meetings. Regular Public Meetings of the Board shall be held at least four times per calendar year on such dates and at such times as specified by the Chair, and on such additional dates and at such times as specified by the Chair or in writing signed by a majority of the Trustees then in office.

2. Special Meetings. Special Public Meetings of the Board may be called at any time by the Chair and must be called by the Chair within twenty-four (24) hours after the Chair's receipt of a written request for a Special Public Meeting signed by a majority of the Trustees then in office and specifying the purpose of the meeting. Signatures may be electronic and in counterparts.

3. Emergency Meetings. Emergency Public Meetings of the Board may be called at any time by the Chair in instances of an actual emergency and must be called by the Chair within twenty-four (24) hours after the Chair's receipt of a written request for such a meeting signed by a majority of the Trustees then in office, identifying the actual emergency and specifying the purpose of the meeting. Signatures may be electronic and in counterparts. Meeting notice and minutes of emergency Public Meetings shall describe the emergency justifying the emergency Public Meeting.

4. Place of Meetings. All regular Public Meetings and Special Public Meetings of the Board shall be held in a location or through a platform that is compliant with Oregon Public Meetings Law.

5. Notice of Meetings.

a. Notice of all regular Public Meetings shall be given in a manner reasonably calculated to give interested persons, including the media, actual notice of the time and place of the meeting and principal subjects anticipated to be considered at the meeting. Notice of Special Public Meetings shall be given to interested persons, including the news media, which have requested notice and to the general public at least 24 hours prior to the hour of the meeting. Notice of an emergency Public Meeting shall be such as is appropriate to the circumstance.

b. Notice of a regular or Special Public Meeting must be given to each Trustee at least 48 hours prior to the hour of the meeting. Notice to each Trustee of an emergency Public Meeting shall be such as is appropriate to the circumstance. Notice of all such meetings may be given to Trustees orally either in person or by telephone or may be delivered in writing, either personally, by mail, by electronic mail, or by facsimile transmission. If mailed other than by electronic mail, notice shall be deemed to be given three (3) days after deposit in the United States mail addressed to the Trustee at the Trustee's address on file with the Secretary for the purpose of receiving Board correspondence, with postage prepaid. If notice is sent by electronic mail or facsimile transmission, notice shall be deemed given immediately if the electronic mail notice is sent to the Trustee's University of Oregon electronic mail address or, as applicable, the Trustee's facsimile on file with the Secretary for the purpose of receiving such correspondence. Notice by all other means shall be deemed to be given when received by the Trustee.

6. Minutes of Meetings. The Board shall provide for the taking of written minutes of all Public Meetings, which minutes shall give a true reflection of the matters discussed and actions taken at the Public Meetings as well as the views of the participants, unless otherwise permitted by law. In addition to written minutes, the Board may provide for an audio or video recording of a Public Meeting.

ARTICLE VI Officers of the University

1. Officers. The officers of the University shall be a President, Treasurer, General Counsel, Secretary and such other officers as may be deemed necessary by the President to conduct University business. The officers shall have such authority and perform such duties as set forth in the law and these Bylaws and as may be prescribed by the Board or President.

2. President. The Board shall appoint a President. The President of the University is the President of the Faculty. The President is also the executive and governing officer of the University, except as otherwise provided by statute or action of the Board. Subject to the supervision of the Board, the President of the University has authority to direct the affairs of the University. The President shall, periodically, report to the Board all significant matters within the President's knowledge related to affairs of the University. The President shall perform such other duties as assigned by the Board. The President may appoint other officers and employees of the University, who shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed by the President.

3. Treasurer. The President shall appoint a chief financial officer, who shall be the Treasurer. Subject to the supervision of the Board and applicable law, the Treasurer of the University shall properly account for all monies collected, received and expended by the University and all real and personal property of the University. The Treasurer will keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct records of the assets, liabilities, and business transactions of the University. The Treasurer will disburse the funds of the University as may be provided for by the Board, may settle and pay all claims against the University, and will render to the President or the Board, upon request, an account of the financial condition of the University.

4. General Counsel. The President shall appoint a General Counsel. The General Counsel to the University is the chief legal officer of the University and represents and advises the University, including the Board, officers, and employees, in all matters related to the affairs of the University. The General Counsel is authorized to accept legal process on behalf of the University.

5. Secretary. The President shall appoint the Secretary. The Secretary shall be responsible for the giving of required notices of meetings of the Board, the preparation of minutes, and proper records management for the Board.

ARTICLE VII Board Committees

Subject to the requirements of applicable law, the Board may establish such committees as it deems appropriate or necessary and shall define the duties and reporting requirements of such committees and the membership of the committees.

ARTICLE VIII Conflicts of Interest

- 1. In General. Subject to the requirements of law and of this Article, the Board may take any action involving either a potential conflict of interest or an actual conflict of interest (as defined in ORS Chapter 244). Prior to taking any action in an official capacity on any matter involving a potential conflict of interest or an actual conflict of interest for a Trustee, the Trustee shall publicly announce the nature of the potential or actual conflict of interest. Any Trustee having an actual conflict of interest in a transaction with the University shall in addition (i) refrain from participating in any discussion or debate on the issue out of which the conflict arises, and (ii) refrain from voting on the issue, unless the Trustee's vote is necessary for Board action on the issue and is otherwise not prohibited by ORS Chapter 244.
- 2. Labor Negotiations. As described in ORS 352.076, the faculty and nonfaculty staff, and student members of the governing board may not participate in any discussions or action by the board or attend any executive session of the board involving collective bargaining issues that affect faculty, nonfaculty staff, or student employees at the university.
- 3. Other. The Board may adopt such other policies and standards pertaining to conflict of interest and ethics as the Board determines to be appropriate.

ARTICLE IX Indemnity

- 1. Indemnification and Defense in General.
 - a. The University shall defend and indemnify any Trustee or Officer ("Party") against any Claim, whether groundless or otherwise, arising out of an alleged act or omission occurring in the performance of official duties. The University shall not provide indemnification and defense in case of malfeasance in office, willful or wanton neglect of duty, or in judicial or administrative action in which the Party is found to have violated the Oregon Government Ethics Law. The University may cease to provide indemnification or defense upon a determination by the University, in its sole discretion, that an act or omission may constitute criminal conduct.
 - b. The University may choose to defend a Party under a reservation of rights. Any Party to whom the University is providing a defense shall cooperate fully with the University in the defense of such Claim. If the University determines, in its sole discretion, that such Party has not so cooperated or has otherwise acted to prejudice the defense of the Claim, the University may at any time terminate its defense and indemnity or proceed under a reservation of rights.
- 2. Legal Expenses when Claim is by a Governmental Entity or Professional Licensing Authority.
 - a. Expenses incurred by a Party in the defense of a civil Claim by a governmental entity or a professional licensing authority may be advanced or reimbursed by the University if the University, in its sole discretion, determines that the civil Claim arose out of the Party's performance of official duties. Such advancement or reimbursement constitutes part of the Party's official compensation package for purposes of ORS Chapter 244. The University may decline to reimburse a Party for any expenses incurred prior to the University's written commitment to provide reimbursement.

- b. Expenses shall be paid by the University in advance of the final disposition of a civil Claim described in this section 2 at the written request of the Party if:
 - (1) The University determines, in its sole discretion, that the conduct of such Party was in good faith, and the Party reasonably believed that such conduct was in the best interests of, or not opposed to the best interests of, the University.
 - (2) The Party furnishes the University a written undertaking to repay such advance to the extent it is ultimately determined by the University, in its sole discretion, that such Party is not entitled to be indemnified by the University under this Article or under any other indemnification rights granted by the University to such Party.

Such advances shall be made without regard to the person's ability to repay such advances.

3. Legal Representation. The General Counsel shall have the exclusive authority to select counsel and to defend against any Claim. The General Counsel will consult with the Party regarding any term of a settlement agreement that affects the legal rights of the Party.

4. Definition. The term "Claim" means any threatened, pending, or completed investigation, action, suit, or proceeding brought by a party other than the University.

5. Non-Exclusivity and Continuity of Rights. This Article: (i) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any statute, agreement, general or specific action of the University or otherwise, both as to action in the official capacity of the person indemnified and as to action in another capacity while holding office, (ii) shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Party, (iii) shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.

6. Amendments. Any repeal of this Article shall only be prospective, and no repeal or modification hereof shall adversely affect the rights under this Article in effect at the time of the alleged occurrence of any action or omission to act that is the cause of any Claim or complaint.

ARTICLE X Miscellaneous Provisions

1. Principal Office. The principal office of the University is located at the 1098 East 13th Avenue, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 97403.

2. Email. All trustees will be provided with an institutional email address. Trustee email addresses will be clearly and publicly posted on the university website.

3. Severability. Any determination that any provision of these Bylaws is for any reason inapplicable, invalid, illegal, or otherwise ineffective shall not affect or invalidate any other provision of these Bylaws. The headings in these Bylaws are provided for convenience and shall not be considered in the interpretation or construction of these Bylaws.

4. Authority. Because the Board is the final University authority, these bylaws and Board policies and standards have precedence over other policies and standards of the University and its constituent parts. Any policies and standards adopted by the University and its constituent parts shall be consistent with these Bylaws.

5. Amendment of Bylaws. These Bylaws may be altered, amended, restated or repealed and new bylaws may be adopted by the Board at any regular or Special Public Meeting.
